FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1915

COUNTY CLERK'S REPORT

San Francisco, July 1st, 1915.

Hon. James Rolph, Jr.,

Mayor of the City and County of San Francisco.

Dear Sir:

In compliance with Section 9, Article XVI, of the Charter of the City and County of San Francisco, I submit herewith the annual report of the office of County Clerk, for the fiscal year 1914-1915.

As to the conduct of the office of County Clerk, I attach and make a part hereof, excerpts from the report of the Grand Jury, in and for the City and County of San Francisco.

As may be seen by reference to the Financial Statement hereto attached, the office has not only been self-sustaining during my incumbency, but has been a source of great profit to the City and County, earning in excess of running expenses the sum of $586,308.15.

Respectfully submitted,

H. I. MULCREVY,

County Clerk and Ex-Officio Clerk of the Superior Court.

EXCERPTS FROM THE REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY ON THE OFFICE OF THE COUNTY CLERK.

* * * * * We have visited the office of the County Clerk several times and from our observation the work of the office appears to be carried on in a proper and efficient manner.

This office comes largely in contact with attorneys, and their clients, therefore we requested the President of the San Francisco Bar Association to submit any complaints or criticisms on the conduct of the office and his reply states that it is the general opinion that attorneys are well satisfied with the conduct and the performance of the duties of said office.

No complaints of any nature concerning the office of the County Clerk have been referred to this Committee during the sessions of the Grand Jury and therefore we beg to congratulate the City on the administration of this important office.

ANNUAL REPORT
H. I. MULCREVY
COUNTY CLERK

City and County of San Francisco

FOR THE

FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1917

---

San Francisco, July 1st, 1917.

Hon. James Rolph, Jr.,

Mayor of the City and County of San Francisco.

Dear Sir:

In compliance with Section 9, Article XVI, of the Charter of the City and County of San Francisco, I submit herewith the annual report of the office of County Clerk for the fiscal year 1916-1917.

During the fiscal year of 1916-1917, numerous efficiency experts have been employed within and without the government of San Francisco, but none of them visited the office of the County Clerk, or suggested in any way an improvement in the transaction of the business thereof, and I take it for granted that the integrity of the County Clerk's staff is so well known to the public that the aforesaid experts deemed it unnecessary to survey or expert this department, except that in a published "survey report" prepared by "Bureau of Municipal Research, New York, 1916," there appears on page 46 thereof the following, "That the title 'County Clerk' be changed to 'Clerk of Courts' and that all other functions of the County Clerk's office be transferred to the office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, and that the latter title be also changed."

Also, on page 158 of the aforesaid report there appears the following, "When serious consideration is next given to revising the City's Charter it would be advantageous to change the title of County Clerk to 'Clerk of the Courts' and to transfer his other duties to the office of 'City and County Clerk'."

In reply to the foregoing permit me to say: The County Clerk is a constitutional officer, and by virtue thereof is clerk of the Superior Court; the Charter of San Francisco imposes an additional duty by making the County Clerk, clerk of the Police Court.

While the statutes of California impose certain duties upon the several County Clerks of the State, other than those performed as clerk of the Superior Court, the Charter of San Francisco relieves the County Clerk of such duties and imposes them upon the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Registrar of Voters and secretaries of the several Boards and Commissions of the government of the City and County of San Francisco.

The County Clerk of San Francisco therefore performs his duties only as ex-officio clerk of the Superior Court and clerk of the Police Court, to change the title of the office or the duties thereof, it would be necessary to amend the Constitution and the statutes of the State in addition to amending the Charter of San Francisco.

In the preparation of the budget of 1917-1918, reference was made to the continuance of the employment of the additional help allowed to the office of the County Clerk in connection with the operation of "An act to provide for the establishment and quieting of real property, etc." (the McEnerney Act), and in reply thereto permit me to say:

I was inducted into office on the 8th day of January, 1906, and on the 18th day of April of the same year, the great fire swept away the contents of the County Clerk's office, including the Superior Court files and records.

Then came the herculean task of re-establishing an office, preparing legal blanks, record books, etc., and in the meantime the filing of new actions at law, and the restoration of old records had to be undertaken.

In a very short space of time our office was re-established and every department of our court had resumed business, and the transactions necessary to the judicial branch of the government were in full swing.

When the "McEnerney Act" became operative it was necessary to get additional help to handle the filing of these actions, which numbered 36,168, with cash receipts amounting to about $300,000.

The filing of an action at law is only the beginning of the work; the greater part is keeping the record as the case progresses and the recordation of the judgment, etc., upon the final adjudication.

In addition to the increased work occasioned by the operation of the McEnerney Act, the business of the court has so multiplied that it was necessary for the Legislature to increase the number of departments from twelve to sixteen, which requires four additional clerks; the naturalization of aliens has so increased that it became necessary to establish an independent department requiring three clerks; the examination and commitment of insane, etc., requires the continual services of three clerks; the Juvenile Court has grown to such proportion that it requires several clerks; the increased business of the civil, probate and criminal departments of our court warrants the employment of additional office help, but such has been the system, that by an equal distribution of the work among the present staff we are able to keep the records up to date.

At no time during my incumbency has there been unnecessary employees in the office of the County Clerk; on the contrary, it is often necessary for deputies to remain after office hours in order to complete the day's work, thus maintaining the rule of keeping the court records up to date.

In proportion to the responsibilities imposed and service rendered, deputy County Clerks are most inadequately compensated.

When consideration is next given to revising the Charter, it would be in justice to all municipal employees to provide for the payment of salaries commensurate with responsibility imposed and faithful service rendered.

With the aid of a thoroughly organized and disciplined office staff, working under a perfect business system, we not only give complete satisfaction to the Bench, Bar and general public, in an honest, efficient and courteous administration of our duties, but as may be seen by reference to the Financial Statement hereto attached, the office has not only been self-sustaining during my incumbency, but has been a source of profit to the City and County, earning in excess of running expenses the sum of $637,502.97.

Respectfully submitted,

H. I. MULCREVY,

County Clerk of San Francisco and ex-officio
Clerk of the Superior Court thereof.

A large, stylized handwritten signature in dark ink, likely belonging to H. I. Mulcrevy, is written across the bottom of the page. The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

ANNUAL REPORT
H. I. MULCREVY
COUNTY CLERK

City and County of San Francisco

FOR THE

FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1918

---

San Francisco, July 1st, 1918.

Hon. James Rolph, Jr.,

Mayor of the City and County of San Francisco.

Dear Sir:

In compliance with Section 9, Article XVI of the Charter of the City and County of San Francisco, I submit herewith the annual report of the office of the County Clerk for the fiscal year 1917-1918.

I am unofficially informed that in response to the suggestion in the Auditor's Report of 1916-17, you have appointed a Bureau for the standardization of salaries for city and county employees.

May I not suggest, through you, that the "Bureau for the standardization of salaries" confer with the County Clerk to the end that a Charter amendment may be prepared that will "protect the interest of the public and its employees" by providing compensation commensurate with the responsible and arduous service so faithfully and efficiently rendered by the employees of the County Clerk's office?

As a Charter amendment is the only legal way to correct the "manifestly unjust attitude on the part of the municipality in the treatment accorded employees of acknowledged efficiency," I beg to urge an early conference to prepare such a Charter amendment in order to submit the same to the people at the next general election.

Respectfully submitted,

H. I. MULCREVY,

County Clerk of San Francisco

GRAND JURY'S REPORT

San Francisco, Cal., February 13, 1918.

To the Foreman and Members of the Grand Jury
of the City and County of San Francisco.

Gentlemen:

We, your Committee on County Clerk and Recorder's Offices, respectfully tender our final report. We have made an investigation of the County Clerk's office and found the method of handling papers, from their presentation until final recordation is made, simple and practical.

The business of the office is divided into several departments, as follows:

General, Civil, Probate, Quiet Title, Criminal,
Marriage License, Naturalization, Copying
Records, etc.

Each department has a responsible head with competent assistants. Courtesy, efficiency, promptness and good order is prevalent in every department. We found all books and records neatly written, and, we believe, accurately kept.

The high standard of efficiency maintained in this office is made possible by the excellent business methods employed by the present County Clerk, who has adopted the most modern, practical improvements, supplemented with many original conceptions of his own.

The great volume of business transacted in this office is, in itself, a splendid commendation of the County Clerk.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR F. HOWELL,

Chairman.

D. D. LOWNEY.

E. R. DIMOND.

ANNUAL REPORT
H. I. MULCREVY
COUNTY CLERK

City and County of San Francisco

FOR THE

---

San Francisco, July 1st, 1919.

Hon. James Rolph, Jr.,

Mayor of the City and County of San Francisco.

Dear Sir:

In compliance with Section 9, Article XVI of the Charter of the City and County of San Francisco, I submit herewith the annual report of the office of the County Clerk for the fiscal year 1918-1919.

Respectfully submitted,

H. I. MULCREVY,
County Clerk of San Francisco.

GRAND JURY'S REPORT

San Francisco, March 20th, 1919.

To the Grand Jury

of the City and County of San Francisco.

Gentlemen:

Your Special Committee assigned the duty to investigate the office of the County Clerk, beg to state that, with the assistance of our experts, we have made an exhaustive examination as to the conduct of said office, and herewith submit the following report:

Hon. Harry I. Mulcrevy, incumbent County Clerk of San Francisco, has been such officer for five successive terms, covering a period of fourteen years, and his administration of said office during all of such time has been endorsed by the Judges of all the State and local Courts, members of the Bar, and each succeeding Grand Jury.

With the aid of a thoroughly organized office force, Mr. Mulcrevy has established such a perfect system of business methods in the office of County Clerk that it is generally conceded the public service therein is 100 per cent efficient. By an equal distribution of responsibility and an implicit understanding between principal and deputies, Mr. Mulcrevy has not only been enabled to successfully handle the large volume of business transacted in his office, and make it self-sustaining, but has earned a net profit for the City and County during his administration aggregating on December 31st, 1918, the sum of $665,055.31%.

Your Special Committee, appreciating the high standard of good government maintained in the office of County Clerk, recommends the endorsement thereof by the Grand Jury of San Francisco.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES G. MARTIN,

FRANK I. GONZALES,

PETER McHUGH,

Special Committee.

ANNUAL REPORT
H. I. MULCREVY
COUNTY CLERK

City and County of San Francisco

FOR THE

---

San Francisco, July 1, 1921.

Hon. James Rolph, Jr.,

Mayor of the City and County of San Francisco.

Dear Sir:

In compliance with Section 9, Article XVI of the Charter of the City and County of San Francisco, I submit herewith the annual report of the office of the County Clerk for the fiscal year 1920-1921.

During the past fifteen years of our incumbency, the receipts of the office have exceeded the disbursements by an average of about forty-five thousand ($45,000) dollars per anum.

Although the Board of Supervisors provided a generous increase in compensation for our office deputies during the past fiscal year, it is gratifying to note that the office continues to be self-supporting.

Receipts, from all departments.....	$183,692.45
Disbursements, salaries .....	159,612.50
Balance.....	$ 24,079.95

Respectfully submitted,

H. I. MULCREVY,

County Clerk of San Francisco, and ex-officio Clerk of the Superior Court, Clerk of the Police Court thereof.

San Francisco, July 1, 1923.

Hon. James Rolph, Jr.,

Mayor of the City and County of San Francisco.

Dear Sir: In compliance with Section 9, Article XVI of the Charter of the City and County of San Francisco, I submit herewith the annual report of the office of the County Clerk for the fiscal year 1922-1923:

Receipts, from all departments.....	$241,257.45
Disbursements, salaries .....	159,124.17
Balance . . . . .	$ 82,133.28

Respectfully submitted,

H. I. MULCREVY,

GRAND JURY'S REPORT.

San Francisco, July 1, 1923.

To the Grand Jury of the City and County of San Francisco.

Gentlemen: Your Special Committee assigned the duty to investigate the office of the County Clerk, beg to state that, with the assistance of our experts, we have made an exhaustive examination as to the conduct of said office, and herewith submit the following report:

Hon. Harry I. Mulcrevy, incumbent County Clerk of San Francisco, has been such officer for six successive terms, covering a period of eighteen years, and his administration of said office during all of such time has been endorsed by the Judges of all the State and local Courts, members of the Bar, and each succeeding Grand Jury.

With the aid of a thoroughly organized office force, Mr. Mulcrevy has established such a perfect system of business methods in the office of the County Clerk that it is generally conceded the public service therein is 100 per cent efficient. By an equal distribution of responsibility and an implicit understanding between principal and deputies, Mr. Mulcrevy has not only been enabled to successfully handle the large volume of business transacted in his office, and make it self-sustaining, but has earned a net profit for the City and County during his administration aggregating on June 30th, 1923, the sum of $819,055.95 1-3.

Your Special Committee, appreciating the high standard of good government maintained in the office of County Clerk, recommends the endorsement thereof by the Grand Jury of San Francisco.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS F. DUFFY,

CHAS. B. MISH,

Special Committee.

ANNUAL REPORT
H. I. MULCREVY
COUNTY CLERK

City and County of San Francisco

FOR THE

---

THE RECORDER PRINTING AND PUBLISHING CO., S. F.

EXCERPT FROM THE REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY—1926-1927.

Hon. Harry I. Mulcrevy, incumbent County Clerk, was first inducted into said office on January 8th, 1906. Shortly thereafter, on April 18th, 1906, occurred the conflagration of San Francisco, destroying the City Hall, including the files and records of the County Clerk's office. Mr. Mulcrevy, at the sacrifice of his private business, thereupon applied himself solely to the task of reestablishing his public office and arranging for the machinery of the judicial branch of the government to be set in motion. Mr. Mulcrevy's business experience was here used to splendid advantage, and the records show that in a very short time the County Clerk's office and the courts were operating as if nothing unusual had happened.

Mr. Mulcrevy personally supervises the conduct of his office and is always available to the public to perform any of his official duties. He has established in his office such a perfect system of filing, indexing, registering, recording, docketing, etc., that the status of any court or other proceeding can be easily ascertained by either title or number. The work of the County Clerk's office is divided into several departments and the work of each department is always kept up to date. Every file and record book is in splendid order and accessible to the public.

System prevails; efficient, courteous and prompt service is the rule in the County Clerk's office.

By an intelligent distribution of responsibility and an implicit understanding between principal and deputies, Mr. Mulcrevy has been enabled to handle the ever-increasing amount of business transacted in the County Clerk's office (without additional help) and earn more than a million dollar profit ($1,064,574.45) in excess of running expenses during his administration.

Judges, lawyers and laymen are warm in their praises of Mr. Mulcrevy, because he has demonstrated in a practical way that "A public office is a public trust" and that a public office can be conducted on the highest standard of business principles. They also certify that the best interests of the bench, bar and public would be subserved by retaining him in office, and urge his reelection on November 8th, 1927.

San Francisco, July 1, 1927.

Hon. James Rolph, Jr., Mayor, and the Honorable
Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco.

In compliance with Section 9, Article XVI, of the Charter of the City and County of San Francisco, I submit herewith the annual report of the office of the County Clerk for the fiscal year 1926-1927:

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

Receipts from all departments—	Fiscal year 1926-1927	$255,116.96

Respectfully submitted,

H. I. MULCREVY,

County Clerk of the City and County of San Francisco, and ex-officio

COUNTY CLERK

"Civil Actions Pending" is an accumulation of unprosecuted actions from April 18, 1906, to June 30, 1928. In many of the long-standing actions counsel and litigants are dead, others have been settled out of court, and the balance are continued from time to time, but can be brought to trial within a reasonable time when request is made by the principals. New actions filed are immediately placed on the calendar of the Presiding Judge, and are thereafter assigned to the trial Court in accordance with the rules of the Court.
